PLENTY OF TIME TO REFORM

Under the Circumstances, Autoist Concluded He Would Wait to Make Restitution.

"There's a thing that has happened to several acquaintances of mine that I wonder has not found its way into print long before this," said the autoist, as a sort of windup to the adventures he had been relating. "They say that when a man is drowning or falling from a great height he thinks of all the mean things he ever did in his whole life. It is the same with an autoist when his machine skids and he sees that he is headed straight for a tree or telegraph pole and cannot possibly avert collision."

"When did you experience this feeling?" was asked.

"About a month ago. I was going along the highway at a clip of 55 miles an hour, when—"

"You said 50."

"I did, and it was 50, though, of course, if I had been arrested I should have sworn that it was under 20. I was making nearly a mile a minute when I struck a wet spot and the machine skidded. Something went wrong with the steering gear at the same time, and we headed for a big telegraph pole. In five seconds I thought of how I beat a farmer out of a dollar; of how a bank once paid me $5 too much; of how I poisoned an old woman's cat; of how I stole a boy's marbles; of how I lied about a man, and of the way I cheated a poor drayman in selling him a horse. All these things rose up before me in the five seconds, and I felt ashamed of them, and wished I could live to make restitution."

"And you are now going about and squaring yourself, being that you lived."

"Well, not exactly. I'll do that some other time. You see, the machine took a skip at the last second and came back into the road again."—Exchange.

FOR A LAW ABOVE PARENTAL

Surgeon Advocates Compulsory Operations for Relief of Deformed Children.

The question of compulsory operations upon crippled and defective children, which was decided by Judge Sulzberger at Philadelphia as entirely a matter for the discretion of the parents, has found a vehement protestant in Dr. E. A. Spitzka. The brain specialist comes forward with the statement that these operations should be made compulsory by legislative enactment. Doctor Spitzka said:

"Parents should not be permitted to prevent an operation upon a child when that operation was absolutely necessary for the child's good. If a conference of surgeons finds it is possible to correct some physical deformity by an operation, then no parent should be permitted to step in and prevent that child from having at least a normal chance to compete with the rest of mankind."

"The good of the community should be considered first and laws should be made that the parents must be forced to hand over the child for an operation at the hands of competent experts when it is deemed necessary to have an operation."

Why They Don't Have to Play.

Manager Charles Carr of the Blues and a few friends were eating lunch in a grill room one night not long ago says the Kansas City Journal, and while waiting for their orders were reading the scores of major league games which are posted there.

A Jewish bartender, who is a very enthusiastic baseball fan and likes to talk when any of the players are around, walked up to the table where the men were seated and said:

"Look at the batteries, fellows; all O'Tooles, Finnigans, Cheneyes and the rest of the Irish. Those Irish sure like to play ball."

"Well," said Carr, "I don't notice that these are any Goldsteins, Goldbergs or any other Jews in there doing anything for the national game."

"Don't worry about any of us Jews, putting our names in the batteries," said the barkeep; "we own the clubs."

Clothes Must Be "Amusing."

The women are tired of fashions that are merely chic or lovely and are now cultivating the eccentric. They like a dress which they can term "amusing." Their hats, also must be "amusing." Their frocks must be "funny," their ties, belts, coats and hosiery "ducky." The latter term describes articles that are pretty and also amusing.

The clothes now worn include braces for women with skirts or trouser effect. Some of the hats are trimmed with two tennis rackets made of plush, with white stockings having black, spreading trees for clocks, and little curate coats and cabmen's hats piled in straw.—London Letter.

Camp Sleeping Outfit.

Camp time and summer time seem to be one and the same thing to a great number of persons, and for the camp there are sleeping outfits of camel's hair velour. These comfortable arrangements consist of a blanket of it, into which one slips as into a bag, and is buttoned along the side and at the foot, and a knit cap and sleeping shoes, matching in color, complete the set. It is an exceedingly warm outfit and yet so light to carry that it can be rolled and added to one's traveling needs without any appreciable difference in weight.

BUCKSHOT WAS FOR RASTUS

Turkey He Had Given to Mrs. Ransom Was Tame Enough to Eat Out of One's Hand.

Rastus had called at Judge Ransom's house and made a present of a fine turkey to the judge's wife.

"Mah brotkeh had two," he said to ease her suspicions, "and so he gave me this one."

Mrs. Ransom gave him in return two bright silver dollars, on the condition that the bird was a tame turkey, and not the wild kind, because the judge detested getting his mouth full of shot every time he wanted a bite.

"Dose turkeys was bofe of 'em tame enough to eat out of yo' hand, Mra' Ransom," said Rastus, earnestly.

That night Judge Ransom and his wife sat down to a deliciously browned turkey, piping hot. At the first bite, the judge jumped to his feet, spitting grape shot in all directions.

"Send for that fellow!" he shouted wrathfully. In due time a panic-stricken Rastus came in trembling.

"I sent for you, you black scoundrel, to ask you why in the Sam Hill you lied about that turkey not being a wild one? Why, it was loaded with bird shot!"

"Dem shot was intended for me, yo' honoh," said Rastus, humbly.—Kansas City Star.

CONCERNING THE ELOCUTIONIST.

Wot's he talkin' about?"
"I dunno, sounds like he was practicin' for a baseball umpire."

Presence of Mind.

Thus she reproached him:
"Alfred, this is the first time you have come to see me for more than a month!"

Thus he explained:
"Kitty, I've decided that when a young fellow can't keep from thinking of a girl every moment of his life it's time for him to quit seeing her."
"Kiss me, Alfred, dear!"
He hesitated a moment—and was lost.

Other Vocations.

"How many graduated from Yale ward this June?"

"Five hundred and ten."

"All going into professional baseball, I s'pose?"

"Not at all," retorted the dean peevishly. "That sort of talk is becoming offensive. We have two men who expect to be outdoors, and one man who is going into his father's hardware store."

Why the Exception?

"Do spectators hoot at a golf game?"

"Oh, no."

"Do they try to rattle the players at polo?"

"Certainly not. That might cause serious accidents."

"Do they get abusive at a tennis match?"

"You know they do not."

"Then why baseball?"

A Poet Preferred.

"My daughter wants to marry a duke."

"Mine wants to marry a poet."

"Well, I believe I'd rather support a poet than a duke. From all accounts, a poet won't eat much, and I don't think he'll want to play the stock market all the time."

Such Nerve!

Tripper (crossing from England to Denmark)—Can you speak their lingo?

Professor—Yes. It's not very unlike English, you know. The Danes left their mark behind them when they invaded England.

Tripper—The Danes invaded England? What infernal cheek!—Punch

Unusual Kind.

Willis—What kind of a hotel does he run?

Gills—As usual. In summer you get a little room with no windows and in winter a big room with no stove.—Judge.

Asked and Answered.

"What happens when you put the dollar before the man?" bawled the candidate.

"The man goes after it," answered an old farmer in the crowd.

A Straight.

Texas Teacher of Infant Geography Class—John Mace may tell us what a strait is.

John Mace—It's jus' th' plain stuff 'bout nothin' in it.—Judge.

A Wait.

"By golly, I call this rubbing it in."

"How now?"

"I sent this magazine two poems and they sent me back three."

One of the Number of Metcalfe's Exclusives

This is a cut of Metcalfe's new Prosperity Shaper, which is going such a long way in decreasing the irritation of men folks' necks and tempers, by letting all fold collars be so ironed that the slides well in collar, and collars are given nice, smooth, oval edge. It is utterly impossible for a collar to crack or break in our laundering process. Our shirt department is one which we feel proud of; not only is work done right, but the shirts are put in Sanitary Covers. Our Dry Cleaning department is in the hands of skilled workmen.

We have flowers for all occasions. Remember that if you buy or contract for $10 worth of coupon books, and take one during August and another when the Avalon is finished, the profits from the business, and more, go into the Avalon, a place of pleasure for Hopkinsville and surrounding country people.

A FINE LINE OF COPY-RIGHTED ART CALENDARS.

The plans for your advertising campaign this year should by all means include a handsome Art Advertising Calendar for 1913. We have secured the exclusive agency for the Copyrighted Calendars produced by the A. M. Collins Mfg. Co., of Philadelphia.

This is one of the largest and most substantial Calendar houses in the United States, and the quality of their line is superior to that of any ever shown in this section.

This line will be handled exclusively by us in Christian and Trigg counties. It includes a great number and variety of subjects in full color, as well as some hand colored pictures of exceptional beauty.

The samples for 1913 will be in our hands shortly, and we shall be glad to show them to you at an early date. MAKE NO PLANS FOR YOUR 1913 CALENDAR UNTIL YOU SEE THIS EXTRAORDINARY LINE. HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN.
